

Griffin Landing Timber

- Griffin Landing Timber is 183± acres in the eastern part of Burke County, close to the Georgia/South Carolina state line and close to Plant Vogtle. In addition to being a great timber investment tract, this property is also an excellent hunting and recreational tract. It features Longleaf and Loblolly pine plantation of varying ages, a mixture of mature pine and hardwoods, Little Beaverdam Creek frontage, lots of road frontage, and it's less than 2 miles from the Savannah River. The property sits on both sides of Griffin Landing Rd., with almost 1,500 feet of paved road frontage on both sides.
- The portion of the property on the west side of the road also has 2,000 feet of frontage along River Rd. This side of the property has a stand of planted pines at the front and another small stand on the back, with the remainder being a mixture of mature pine and hardwood.
- On the east side, a small stand of planted pines sits on the front of the property and Little Beaverdam Creek runs along the back property line, with a mixture of mature pine and hardwoods along the creek. The remainder of the east side is mostly young pine plantation.
