

Richardson Creek

Richardson Creek is a 118+/- acre tract located in Southern Jenkins County. This would be the perfect property for anyone interested in purchasing hunting land for a great price! It would also be a great place to build a home since there is already power on site. The property has two small fields on it that amount to 13+/- acres between the two of them. There are young planted pines on the property to provide cover and refuge for wildlife, and there is a creek running through the land with a duck hole. What a great investment this would be! Call today to schedule a showing.
